DEFENDANT CADE COTHREN'S NOTICE
REGARDING SCHEDULING ORDER DEADLINES

Pursuant to the Court's July 17, 2023 Order (Doc. No. 56), Mr. Cothren submits his position on how the extension of the deadline to file discovery motions impacts the remaining deadlines in this matter. Contemporaneously herewith he is filing a Motion to Extend Deadlines for Pretrial Motions and to Disclose Expert Witnesses. In addition to the now-extended deadline for motions regarding discovery issues, the following deadlines are impacted by the government's supplemental discovery production(s):

1. The deadline for pretrial motions set for July 25, 2023 and all corresponding deadlines (Doc. No. 49); and
2. The deadline for expert disclosures set for July 31, 2023 and all corresponding deadlines (Doc. No. 49).

While the government produced additional discovery on July 20, 2023, Mr. Cothren and his counsel require time to review and analyze this production and are not able to advise the Court which, if any, additional deadlines in the current Scheduling Order will be impacted by this production. In addition, the government represented on July 24, 2023 that Mr. Cothren should expect “additional rolling productions as [they] receive additional records from the FBI.” Therefore, Mr. Cothren reserves the right to seek further relief, including but not limited to, extensions of other deadlines and modifications of the Scheduling Order based on the timing, volume, and content of the most recent and any additional document productions.

Respectfully Submitted,
